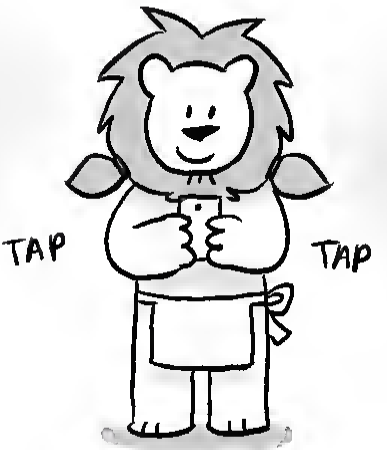
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Leolocks and The Three Alligators

Once upon a time,

there was a lion named Leolocks.



One day, he went for a walk in the forest.

Leolocks you lazy bone, when will you go exercise as promised?
Alright, alright...
TAP
TAP

Pretty soon, he lost his way.

Where am I?
No GPS signal in the forest!

Leolocks was tired and hungry,

and he came upon a house.

He knocked and, when no one answered,

he walked right in.

At the table in the kitchen,

there were three bowls of oatmeal.

Leolocks was very hungry.

He tasted the oatmeal from the first bowl.

So, he tasted the oatmeal from the second bowl.

So, he tasted the last bowl of oatmeal.

But Leolocks was so hungry so he ate it all up.

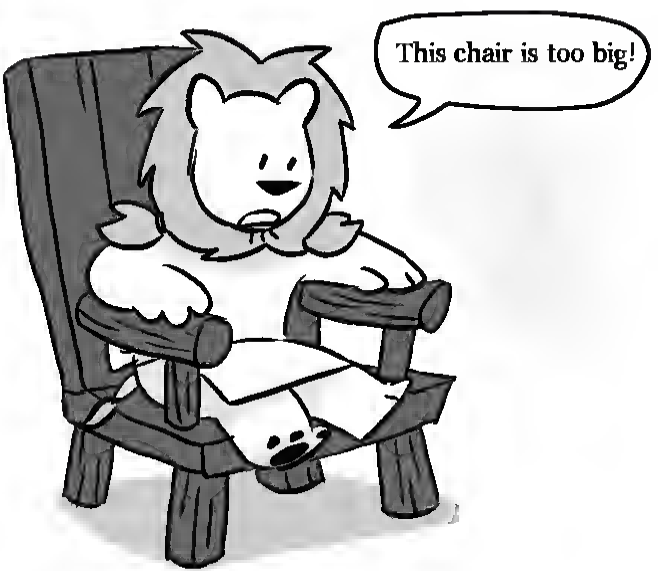
After he'd eaten the three Alligators' breakfasts,

Leolocks decided he was feeling a little tired.

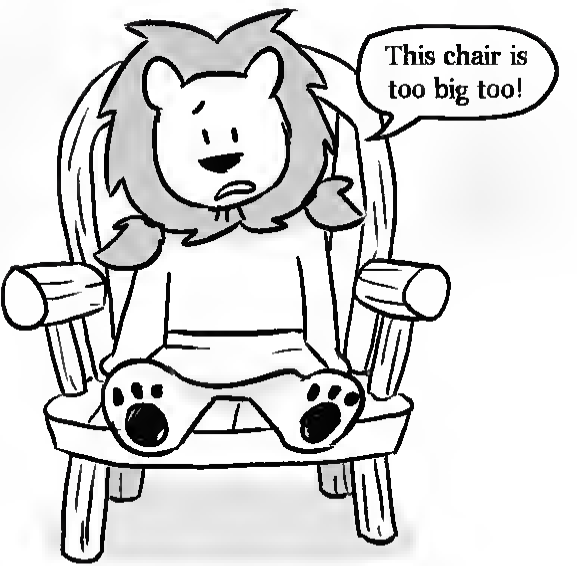
So, he walked into the living room

where he saw three chairs.

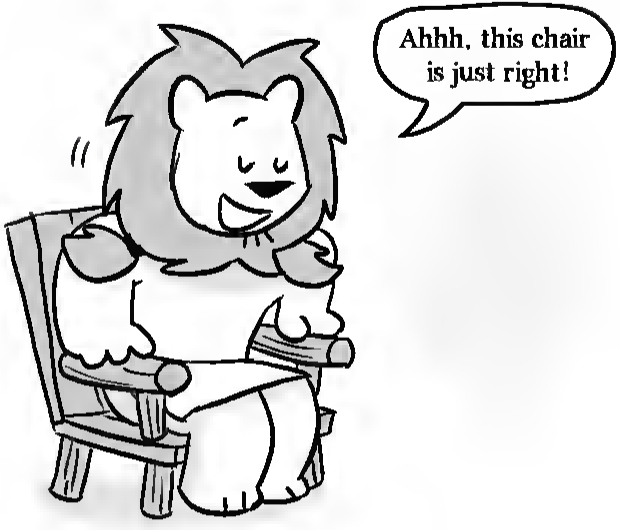
Leolocks sat in the first chair to rest his feet.



So he sat in the second chair.



So he tried the last and smallest chair.



But just as he settled down into the chair to rest,

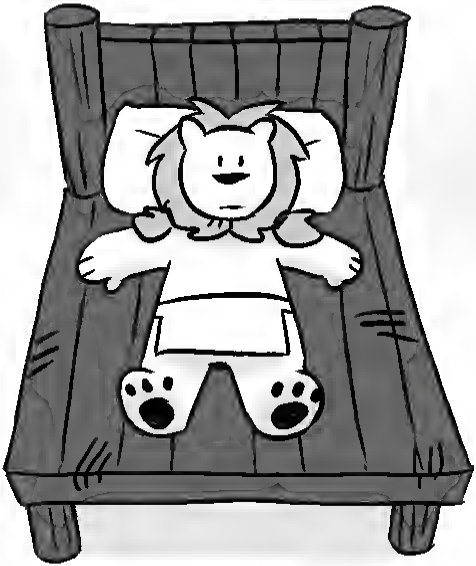
it broke into pieces.

Leolocks was very tired by this time,

so he went upstairs to the bedroom.

He lay down in the first bed,

but it was too hard.

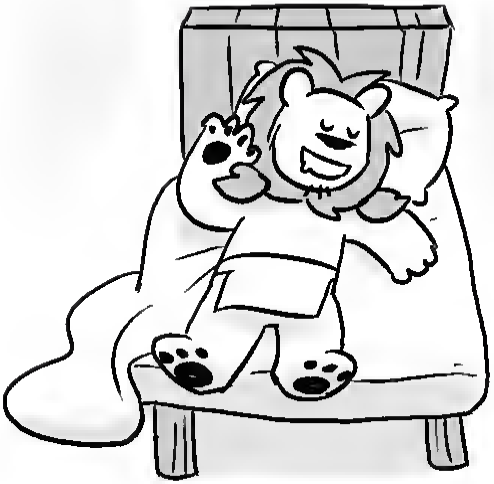


Then he lay in the second bed,

but it was too soft.

Then he lay down in the third bed and it was just right.

Leolocks fell asleep.



As he was sleeping,

three alligators came home.

Someone's been eating my oatmeal.
Someone's been eating my oatmeal.
Someone's been eating my oatmeal and they ate it all up!

Someone's been sitting in my chair.
Someone's been sitting in my chair.
Someone's been sitting in my chair and they've broken it all to pieces!

They decided to look around some more and they went upstairs to the bedroom.

Just then, Leolocks woke up and saw the three Alligators. He said,

And he fell asleep again.

The Alligators let Leolocks use their internet connection.

After he found his way,

Leolocks ran down the stairs, opened the door,

and ran away into the forest.

...And he never returned to the home of the three alligators.

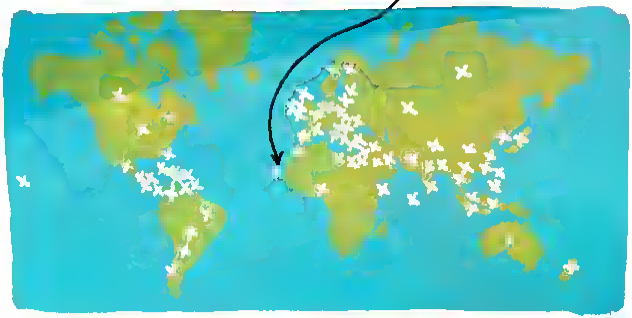
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

Animals Around The World #80

0Midori0
Hi Bonnie, I am from an African island group called "Cabo Verde". I think our national aimal is the Manatee.

Readers from Cabo Verde!



The Manatee is large aquatic mammal also known as the sea cow. The name manati comes from the Caribbean, meaning "breast". It uses their flippers to walk along the bottom and scoop the sea plants to its mouth.